

The Valiant Vezota Vasa Scholarship (VVV Scholarship)

NEED-BASED EXTERNAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Valiant Vezota Vasa Scholarship (VVV Scholarship) is instituted by the family of late Vezota Vasa, who valiantly served as a cadre of the military band as a drummer in the Jath Regiment of the Indian Army. The scholarship is awarded to a limited number of students who come to study at OTS from outside of the state of Nagaland and who meet and fulfill the laid down criteria for a need-based grant. This scholarship is renewable for subsequent years depending on the recipient's good standing all round in the seminary. This award can be applied to tuition fees and/or to mess fees or other personal needs contingent on the availability of the scholarship funds during that year.

Application is open to all students who fulfill the criteria. Students who are sponsored by the church or other organizations will not be eligible for the grant.

The scholarship will be granted to candidates who fulfill the following criteria:

- Submit the prescribed application form
- Demonstrate genuine financial needs in writing in about 500 words
- Demonstrate genuine calling to ministry and possesses commendable Christian character.
- Is committed and is observed as a potential future church leader from outside of Nagaland where Christianity is a minority
- Demonstrate academic capability and maintain a GPA of "B" or above
- Attach a recommendation letter from the pastor stating the student's church background
