

Wati and Alongla Aier Postgraduate Scholarship

Each year, Oriental Theological Seminary (OTS) awards a limited number of scholarships to students who meet and fulfill the laid down criteria for each grant. One such scholarship is the WATI AND ALONGLA AIER POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP established by the children of Wati and Alongla Aier to provide need-based financial aid to OTS Master of Theology (MTh) students. The scholarship is named after Wati Aier, Emeritus Professor of Constructive Theology and Philosophy at OTS, and Alongla Aier, Emeritus Professor of English and Communications at OTS.

The scholarship covers full tuition fees for one student per academic year. Alternatively, the scholarship may be divided and awarded to two students. The application is open to candidates in the Master of Theology (MTh) program who meet the specified criteria outlined below. Please note that students who are sponsored by churches/organizations or receiving scholarships from other sources are not eligible to apply for this award.

- Submit the prescribed application form
- Demonstrate genuine financial needs in writing in about 500 words
- Demonstrate academic capability and maintain a GPA of “B” or above
- Demonstrate calling to ministry and possess commendable Christian character.
- Is committed and is observed as a potential future church leader
